Market Trends

At present, the increasing sales of passenger and commercial vehicles on account of rapid urbanization and improving income levels represent one of the major factors positively influencing the demand for pressure washers around the world. The expanding number of car washing centers is also favoring the market growth. In addition, it is currently employed in the food and beverage (F&B) industry to clean and remove bacteria and other microorganisms from kitchen counters and equipment. This, in confluence with the rising number of hotels, restaurants, cafes, and quick service restaurants (QSRs) worldwide, is contributing to the growth of the market. Apart from this, a pressure washer is used in the construction industry for cleaning machinery, facades, and sites. Moreover, the growing construction activities in residential, commercial, and industrial areas and increasing investments in the development of smart cities by governments of numerous countries are driving the market. Furthermore, the rising awareness about the maintenance of cleanliness and hygiene among the masses is providing a thrust to the market growth. The increasing number of gardens, parks, athletic fields, and golf courses on account of the rising participation of individuals in recreational sports and fitness activities is catalyzing the demand for pressure washers worldwide. Besides this, the growing focus on self-gardening on account of improving lifestyles and the need for maintaining aesthetic outdoor spaces is creating a positive outlook for the market. Besides, the product manufacturers are introducing electric pressure washers that are highly portable, energy-efficient, cause minimal environmental pollution, and operate on cordless batteries. Along with this, the easy availability of pressure washers through online retail channels is offering lucrative growth opportunities to market players operating in the industry. Additionally, it finds extensive applications in the agricultural sector to improve crop productivity. Along with this, several initiatives undertaken by governing agencies of numerous countries to promote modern farming practices are anticipated to strengthen the growth of the market. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach US$ 3.1 Billion by 2027, exhibiting a growth rate (CAGR) of 3.9% during 2022-2027.
