

NSUR Launched a Better Alternative to ArrayRx one year ago: NSURx

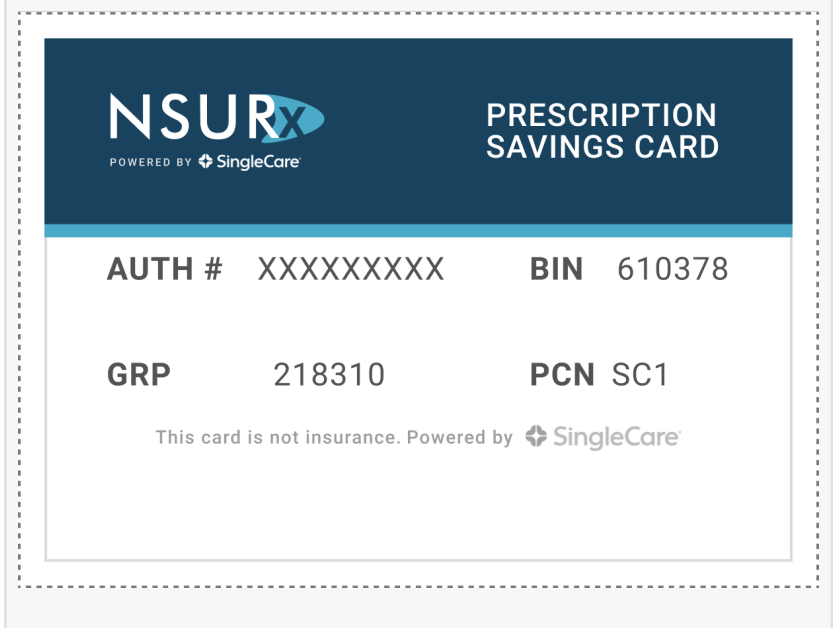

NSUR has been helping USA consumers with up to 80% prescription discount.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, USA, October 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On the 22nd of September, the Governor of Nevada, Mr Sisolak announced an Rx prescription discount card called ArrayRx card. While it's a great idea and will help Americans with the high prices of prescription drugs. It's nowhere near an original idea or the best option available for users in the market. We're speaking about NSURx cards from Nevada crypto company NSUR.

Prescription discount cards help users save money on their prescription drugs. NSURx by NSUR inc and ArrayRx card both help users save up to 80% on prescription drugs. But NSURx seems to have taken it one step ahead with integrating blockchain technology, once registering on their website users can also get crypto rewards across 35k pharmacies.

NSURx provides several amazing benefits to consumers, including:

1. Instant savings. NSURx offers instant Rx discounts on brand name and generic prescription medication at the register.

2. Use in a wide network of pharmacies. NSURx gives discounts in a network of over 35,000 participating pharmacies across the county, including chain pharmacies from Walgreens to Walmart and independent retail pharmacies.

3. Free crypto rewards. Blockchain is one of the emerging technologies of this century, NSURx uses that to reward its users on every purchase.

4. No enrollment fee and no usage limits. NSURx is free to download & use immediately. Moreover, you can use NSURx for most prescriptions even if they are already covered by your own insurance program

NSURx has all the benefits of ArrayRx PLUS free crypto rewards. NSURx is powered by NSUR Coin and NSUR Inc. There is a price and location lookup tool available on their website (<https://www.nsurcoin.com/nsurx>) and will allow you to find deals at your nearest drug store.
