

E360tv Announces the Newest Short Film Releases – “Abhita and Right-Hand Man,” Drama

Two short films which highlight two ongoing issues, bullying and gun violence, on e360tv streaming network.

IRVINE, CA, USA, September 27, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- e360tv, a newly emerging online streaming platform, and 4 Feet Off The Ground, LLC, announce the release of two award-winning short films Right-Hand Man, on Wednesday, October 5th, 2022, and Abhita is slated to be released Wednesday, October 12th, 2022, both at 6 pm PST, 9 pm EST. Both short films are produced and directed by Lacey G Souldier Turner on e360tv.

Aaron Heimes, President of e360tv remarked on the timing and gravity of the subject matters of the films. “Gun violence and bullying are two subjects that come and go on mainstream media outlets but they are persistent issues facing young people. These two films give pause to viewers to look at the two issues from a different perspective and how they affect the African-American community.”

Right Hand Man

Sean witnesses a disturbing phone call between his fiancé, "Free," and his best friend, "Derion." Sean calls his friend "Boosta" to make sense of what is happening. While attempting to drown his sorrow in some liquor, Sean arrives at a convenience mart where he spots his fiancé and best friend in the store shopping together. Sean gets enraged and goes home to get drunk while contemplating revenge and searching for his gun. When his fiancé comes home after a couple of hours, he confronts her about his findings. Sean makes a decision that will forever impact the lives of all three people involved.

Abhita

Abhita is a 13-year-old African American girl, tall and obese. Intelligent and charming, she lives with her mom and grandmother.

On the surface, everything seems fine, but Abhita's is being bullied at school by four girls. The only friend she has is a thirteen-year-old European boy. Abhita, scrolling through numerous comments on Facebook, and reading negative things about her, drives to a decision that will change her life.
