

DAVID ARN RELEASES NEW MUSIC VIDEO "Watershed"

FREDERICK, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, September 27, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- David Arn's latest album "Watershed" arrived September 13th. Now we are getting to see the music video for the lead song.

"Watershed" is a song dealing with a soldier's PTSD, Anguish and Hope. "This was written for a friend" Arn said. "If you are of a certain age you have seen war and may know those for whom the war never really ended. We are talking about those who served our country, returned to civilian life and then years, even decades later, a triggering event puts them right back into the battle.

To be honest, I am a little nervous as to how people will receive the music video because the theme can be perceived as being intense".

The project was filmed during strict quarantine, It was to be shot entirely in Canada but with borders closed, locations were split with award winning filmmaker William Murray shooting in Philadelphia and filmmaker Shaun Ryan Savard filming near Ottawa. Their excellent footage was then stitched together.

The video features Canadian actress, Malia, and U.S. actor and photographer David Swift.
