The certification now allows All Your Foods to increase its sales and customer base immediately. It also allows the company to work with other companies to white label frozen meals and ready-to-eat snacks. The company will also be starting meal pick up options and has begun developing partnerships for its catering services.

Benny Doro, C.E.O. of All Your Foods Canada commented, "We are pleased to have completed inspections and work undertook to satisfy the requirements of the local governmental bodies. This is a game-changer that will allow us to grow quickly and expand our reach across North America. Give us a try and visit us at <https://allyourmeals.com/> "

The global online food delivery services market is expected to grow from $115.11 billion in 2021 to $128.32 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11.5%. The market is expected to grow to $159.46 billion in 2026 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.6%.

An increase in smartphone users has given a boost to online food delivery services worldwide. Smartphone users are the primary online shoppers for the F&B industry and an increase in the number of smartphone users reflects a potential increase in online shopping for food and beverages.
