“Taxila Stone is honored to collaborate with Monica Venturini and Alberto Minotti to bring their groundbreaking kitchen designs to the DFW metroplex. Our passion has always been to inspire and assist our clients on their journey of discovery” shared Hari Polavarapu, Taxila Stone CEO. “Whether you are designing luxury kitchens or sourcing natural stone, Taxila is your one-stop-shop for materials you won’t find anywhere else.

For nearly 70 years, minotticucine has manufactured modern-luxury kitchens embracing their design philosophy that has been described as “mediterranean minimalism” and “essentialism.” minotticucine’s clean and identifiable aesthetic facilitates clarity of mind and simplicity of high design style. With the goal to pair away unnecessary excess or extraneous details, their designs allow the strength and beauty of the materials to speak for themselves. “Silence for the eyes, quiet for the spirit” is a reflection that underlies every minotticucine detail and has long propelled the art of luxury kitchen design.”

Josh Caballero, Taxila Stone, shared “We are absolutely thrilled to be opening a minotticucine here in the DFW metroplex. You really have to visit our new showroom to understand, but it is like having a museum-worthy sculpture in the form of a kitchen.”
