Pre or post-celebration, bridal parties can relax at Trellis Spa, the largest luxury spa in Texas, which offers the convenience of onsite head-to-toe pampering in a luxurious setting.

Exceeding guests' expectations is a top priority for their team which includes an onsite florist and event rentals studio called Sage 'n' Bloom providing wedding consultation, idea and color storyboards, linens, décor, and furniture to elevate any event. Their onsite audio-visual department can offer the latest sound and high-tech video and lighting equipment and provide expertise for planning weddings, receptions, and parties.

In addition to the ceremony and reception, bridal parties can take advantage of The Houstonian's bridal suites, where friends and family can be close to the bride and groom on their special day. Grooms enjoy the resort's Laser Shot shooting simulator, which can be set up in various locations with food and beverage for gathering and entertaining friends and family.

The Legacy Lounge, the hotel's newest celebration room, offers exclusive access with comfortable seating and separate dining rooms. Brides can also take advantage of the Pearl Suite in the Legacy Lounge. The beautifully appointed suite is named as a tribute to First Lady Barbara Bush and offers a private dressing room with floor-to-ceiling views, makeup stations, mirrors, and a powder bath. Brides may purchase elegant crystal stemware etched with the Pearl Suite logo to serve champagne and celebrate with special guests. The historic Manor House offers couples a connection to history for weddings, receptions, and parties and the elegant Hearth Room with its dedicated bar service area is a perfect location for a rehearsal dinner or farewell brunch.
