

Christy Darling Joins Idaho First Bank's Mortgage Team

MCCALL, IDAHO, UNITED STATES,
September 28, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Idaho First Bank (the "Bank") (OTC: IDFB) announced the expansion of its Mortgage department with the addition of Christy Darling as a Residential Mortgage Lender.

Bringing twenty-two years of experience in the mortgage lending industry with her, Christy will be responsible for handling everything in the residential lending realm including refinancing, home equity loans, and first-time home purchases in the Boise, Nampa, and Caldwell areas.

"As a native Idahoan, I am excited and proud to be a part of such a community-minded institution whose core values put Idaho first," says Christy. "I truly enjoy being able to help people achieve their goals of being homeowners and offering them the best lending solution for their unique needs."

From shipping to the secondary market and wholesale representation to holding titles as Loan Officer, Escrow Officer, and Mortgage Loan Processor for both banks and mortgage brokerages in the Southeast Idaho region, Christy brings vast, expert knowledge to the people of Idaho.

"She has worked and excelled in almost every capacity within our industry," says VP Mortgage Sales Manager, Lupe Rodriguez.

Outside of work, you can find Christy enjoying all that Boise has to offer, including camping, hiking, attending local rodeos and live events, or spending time at home with her dogs and two cockatoos.
