He loves us unconditionally. Sometimes I ponder that love... How can someone who does all these amazing miracles really care about me... or even know who I am for that matter?”

“One of the most important things I can do as a Christian singer and songwriter is express Christ’s love for us,” Stephanie says. “He loves us unconditionally. Sometimes I ponder that love... It amazes me. This song is special to me because it takes the pondering of my heart and expresses it by asking questions about his omniscience and power. How can someone who does all these amazing miracles really care about me... or even know who I am for that matter?”

She continues, “The chorus is powerful because it’s the reality of His love. He loved me so much that He stayed on the cross, when He had the power to get down. He willingly gave up His life. His love is the greatest, most amazing thing this world has ever seen! I hope you feel His love through my song "You First Loved Me."
