

KokTailz dating app could be the new dawn for businesses

KokTailz is an organized structure where experienced individuals take positions according to area of expertise to ensure an effective and efficient operation.

UNITED STATES, November 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There are over 1500 dating platforms in the United States. Each of these platforms have their uniqueness which drives users to use their services. Most, if not all these platforms follow the same approach, limiting the amount of features a user can get on one platform, which results in scattered signups from users over different dating platforms.

KokTailz has taken a different approach, which would be the first of its kind, by combining the unique features that are unique to the top players in the dating app industry, to give users a platform that would give them lesser reasons to switch services over time. This would be beneficial to businesses looking to advertise their products and services. If users are given less reasons to switch from the platform, a very loyal customer base is created, which gives businesses the chance to promote repeat business.

Businesses will also gain the observation of a diversified audience of over 300 million users because of the many personalities that storm dating platforms looking for one thing to another. For businesses looking for a strong customer base and a versatile platform to promote their products and services, KokTailz could be a solution for them.

KokTailz, whose within the top dating apps, is also introducing a “Clinked” feature which shows you all the potential matches you were near throughout your day that share the same interests. KokTailz shows the approximate location, making matching a more comfortable and exciting experience knowing you truly share the same interests. KokTailz is an app for meeting new people.
