> CoreStack is at an inflection point in its growth curve with a phenomenal pipeline of Fortune 5000 customers"
> Sri Chandrashekar, Chief Digital Officer, CoreStack

Chandrashekar was the Co-founder and CEO of Optio3, an AI-powered operations management company based in Seattle, WA. Prior to his time at Optio3, Chandrashekar was the founding General Manager and VP of the IT Operations Management (ITOM) business unit at ServiceNow, growing revenue from zero to an amount in excess of $100MM business in less than four years. Chandrashekar joined ServiceNow after 18 years at Microsoft. He has been awarded 24 patents for his work at Microsoft and ServiceNow.

Chandrashekar has already worked with CoreStack team, driving the integration of Optio3's technology into CoreStack's NextGen Cloud Governance platform. "We've been leveraging Optio3's technology in our platform for a while now and have had tremendous success with it," said Ezhilarasan (Ez) Natarajan, CoreStack Founder and CEO. "We now have the opportunity to bring the Optio3 team's expertise in-house and can further tailor the technology to support our enterprise customers' needs. Having Sri join the CoreStack leadership team as Chief Digital Officer is just icing on the cake. As we work to bring NextGen Cloud Governance to the world, Sri's leadership, experience, and command of the industry will give us a huge advantage."

"CoreStack is at an inflection point in its growth curve with a phenomenal pipeline of Fortune 5000 customers," said Sri Chandrashekar, the new CDO. "The Optio3 team is highly specialized in delivering high-scale platforms and SaaS solutions to those enterprise customers. I'm excited that we're working together to achieve CoreStack's ambitious vision and product roadmap for NextGen Cloud Governance, and I'm looking forward to uncovering new digital opportunities in my role as CDO."
