and Google Travel by the enormous amount of listing that seem to have every amenity know to the hospitality industry. The variety of in town and out of town Airbnbs and VRBOs provided different setting both the in-town and the Texas Hill Country feel. Many of the bed and breakfast are attached to another house which makes them less optimal for a private and free living experience. Many guests find the country side to be more comfortable with the Bed and Breakfast in the Farm, Ranch, Hill Country settings. These Bed and Breakfast have many advantages from seeing the stars more clearly at night, private untouched views of the hill country, exotic animals, space to explore, privacy, less noise pollution and even a fun place to after party when the bars and restaurant of Fredericksburg close down.

One such Bed And Breakfast experience involves a Ranch with 2 extra large shipping containers near the downtown of Fredericksburg Texas. The novelty of shipping containers and the tiny home movement peaks many guests interest. These container home rentals in Fredericksburg have it all, including luxury appliances, TVs, free wifi (starlink), full kitchen, full bathroom, 2 bedrooms with queen beds, 1 futon bed in the living room, garage glass garage doors that open up into the hill country deck. The Avery Ridge Ranch Containers also provide private patios that came off of each room which has their own sliding door. The crowing feature is the rooftop deck with views for miles all around the Texas Hill Country. There is variety of patio furniture including the new novel swinging egg chairs, fireplaces, and wine barrels for tables. This is a great place to stay located close enough for an uber to the Gillespie County Fair, Close Fredericksburg Texas Wineries, and close to downtown Fredericksburg tx. After exploring Fredericksburg guests are encourage to come back to the Best Little Fredericksburg Texas Bed and Breakfast for some late night snacks, drinks and story telling around the fire.
