

ADU Los Angeles Announces Its Premium ADU Building Services to LA Residents

ADU Los Angeles is a construction company primarily specializing in ADU construction.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, October 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This company would like to let the residents of LA know about the ADU building services that it offers.

“Building an ADU in LA right now is all the rage,” said Tom Blackett, owner and contractor at ADU Los Angeles. “An ADU is quite simply a secondary building sharing the same lot with the primary home. It is self-contained and can be used as a dwelling for older children, and parents or even as an avenue for bringing in rental income. When you want to build an ADU, you must have all the information right to avoid getting into any conflict with the authorities or your neighborhood. This is where ADU LA comes in. We not only offer building services but we advise you on how best to build your ADU, help you to get permissions as well as advise you on all technicalities surrounding ADU construction.”

An ADU is an Accessory Dwelling Unit. It is a fully functioning mini house that is built to create more room without renovating the primary dwelling. And LA’s real estate property market is thriving in step with its growth. Thanks to the rising cost of living and property prices, many home owners are now opting to build ADUs alongside their homes for various reasons.

To build an ADU in LA, it is vital to seek the services of an ADU contractor Los Angeles. While these structures may seem small and are built on a lot with an existing home, there are certain permissions required before construction of the ADU can commence. Also, ADU Los Angeles construction is governed by different laws depending on the zone that the building will be constructed.

Some of the laws that apply to this construction include the maximum square footage allowed, as well as the height of the ADU. Some areas allow multi-storeyed units while others only allow one floor. It is vital that a homeowner understands these laws to avoid making costly errors. ADU builders Los Angeles should also use the services of licensed contractors to ensure that the structure constructed is satisfactory.
