

FLEET WEEK 2022: Blue Angels visit Aquarium of the Bay ahead of the Air Show

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- 16 Blue Angel Pilots visited the Aquarium of the Bay this morning and shared their hopes for a fog-free dazzling air show to come!

Smithsonian-affiliated Aquarium of the Bay will host a Fleet Week Watch Party on October 8 at Pier 39 Embarcadero in San Francisco. The Blue Angels pilots are poised to demonstrate a dazzling array of aerial flips, twists, and dives over the San Francisco Bay.

“The Aquarium of the Bay is proud to recognize and host the Blue Angels,” said George Jacob, President, and Chief Executive Officer. “We look forward to the annual Fleet Week Watch- a tradition that was started by Senator Dianne Feinstein 41 years ago in San Francisco.”

The 41st annual Fleet Week takes place from Oct. 3 to Oct. 11. Every year fans travel from all over the world to attend the much-anticipated waterfront event, which celebrates the city’s long naval and maritime history with a variety of events, activities and exhibits including the Fleet Week Parade of Ships and concerts. The Aquarium’s outdoor wrap-around terrace provides stunning
