Counsel. He also assumed the role of Chief Compliance Officer in 2020. As Chief Financial Officer, Lombardi will oversee all corporate operational aspects of the company and will provide strategic direction and oversight to the accounting, finance, legal, human resources, and information technology departments. Additionally, he will oversee all debt for the company and will continue as Chief Compliance Officer. Lombardi earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting and finance from Texas Christian University's Neeley School of Business in 2003 and a Juris Doctorate degree from Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law in 2006.

"Andrew has been instrumental in all aspects of our business and has a strong background in accounting and finance," said Jason Anderson, Co-CEO of Crescent. "He is well positioned for this new role."

Noelle Garsek joined Crescent in 2019 as Vice President, Senior Counsel, responsible for overseeing the legal aspects of the company's acquisitions, dispositions, and asset management. Noelle has over 20 years of experience as a transactional real estate attorney and worked closely with Crescent as outside counsel prior to joining the company. In her role as Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Noelle will oversee all legal aspects of the company and advise on legal strategies and risks in transactions. Garsek graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor's Degree in 1998 and earned her Juris Doctorate degree from Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law in 2001.
