has announced that McMillan Pazdan Smith Architecture is among the 10 winners of the 2022 Premier Award for Client Satisfaction, a national award that honors architecture and engineering firms that deliver a truly exceptional client experience.

“Only the best of the best architecture and engineering firms can boast of winning the Premier Award for Client Satisfaction,” stated PSMJ Resources Director Gregory Hart.

The only designated award in the AEC industry that highlights a firm's commitment to client experience, the recipients are selected through a careful calculation of key metrics for client satisfaction that are highly correlated with sustained growth and an organization's success.

“MPS is relentlessly committed to positive client experience and results in all of our design and advisory services,” said McMillan Pazdan Smith's CEO Chad Cousins, “We appreciate PSMJ's professional recognition, and are grateful for our clients' contribution to this exceptional metric.”

PSMJ recognized McMillan Pazdan Smith and other high-performing firms at A/E/C THRIVE - The Growth, Profit, and Success Summit for Firm Leaders on September 28-30, 2022 in Nashville, Tennessee.
