

Kathleen Cooke Receives She Leads America Award for Distinguished Work in Media and Entertainment

Kathleen Cooke received the She Leads America Award and Certificate of Congressional Record for outstanding work in Christian media and entertainment.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 5, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In an official ceremony in the nation's capital this September 30, 2022, Kathleen Cooke, co-founder of Cooke Media Group and the nonprofit The Influence Lab, was awarded the prestigious She Leads America Award.

One of 10 Christian women of distinction chosen for the 2022 award, Cooke was recognized for her work in the media and entertainment industry, blazing the trail for Christian women in Hollywood.

"Your outstanding leadership has been an inspiration to many across this country and the globe," cites Liz Doyle, founder and executive director of She Leads America. "It is only proper that She Leads America gives tribute to you."

With the recognition, Cooke joins the ranks of other women honored by this award including Dr. Alveda King, niece of Dr. Martin Luther King and founder of Speak for Life; Shirley Dobson, chair of the National Day of Prayer Task Force and director emeritus of Focus on the Family; Bible teacher Marilyn Hickey, and world-renowned author Bodie Thoene.

Under the nonprofit The Influence Lab, Kathleen leads Influence Women with branches in Hollywood, Nashville and Atlanta, inspiring and empowering Christian women to excel in their careers in the film and television industry. "We are all women of influence," shares Kathleen, "and Kathleen Cooke is the recipient of the 2022 She Leads America Award.
