

EAPA Selects Lucy Henry as the 2022 Lifetime Achievement Award Recipient

EAPA acknowledges Ms. Henry's contributions to the EAP field and the inspirational role she's long played in the careers of others entering the profession.

ARLINGTON, VA, UNITED STATES, October 6,

2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Employee Assistance Professionals Association (EAPA), the global leader in the certification, support, development and networking of Employee Assistance professionals, today announces that Lucy Henry, LPC, CEAP, has been selected as the 2022

Lifetime Achievement Award recipient. The award recognizes Ms. Henry's distinguished career as an EAP practitioner (she is currently the VP of Stakeholder Relations for First Sun EAP), her consistent advocacy for the EAP profession and her central role in making EAPA the vital organization that it is today.

I believe it is very important for work organizations to recognize the difference that quality EAPs can make in their organization.”

“I can't think of anyone more deserving of this honor as Lucy Henry lives and breathes EAP,” said Julie Fabsik-

Swarts, EAPA CEO. “She is a true leader and has inspired so many to come into the profession and follow in her footsteps.”

In addition to her work with First Sun EAP, the leader of innovative EAP solutions in the Southeast, which recently celebrated its 30th anniversary, Ms. Henry has held all offices in the South Carolina EAP Association, and she was instrumental in growing the chapter. She was also on the EAPA Board from 2008-2018, ending her term as immediate past president.

“I believe it is very important for work organizations to recognize the difference that quality EAPs can make in their organization,” said Ms. Henry. “The Employee Assistance Professionals Association affords professionals the opportunity to learn and grow so they can provide the best services.”

This award is supported by Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation and will be presented during the 2022 EAPA Institute and EXPO, to take place October 7-9 in Norfolk, VA.
