

Seventh Annual Women's Conference at Charis Bible College Brings Women Together From All Over the U.S. and Abroad

This event is free, with an optional $35 meal ticket covering two lunches

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, October 5, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Charis Bible College is bringing women together for the seventh year in a row for a three-day conference in the Rocky Mountains. Women are encouraged to bring their friends, mothers, sisters, and daughters November 3–5, 2022, to rest and reset at this free conference on the beautiful Charis campus tucked away in the City Above the Clouds, Woodland Park, Colorado.

This year's dynamic speakers are Carrie Pickett, vice president and director of Charis Bible College; Audrey Mack, founder of GoTell Ministry; and Terri Savelle Foy, daughter of evangelist and teacher Jerry Savelle. In addition to main session talks given by Christian women living time-tested professional and family lives, attendees will also have a selection of afternoon workshops to choose from.

This event is free, with an optional $35 meal ticket covering two lunches available for purchase during the online registration process, as well as additional food vendors onsite. Woodland Park also offers a variety of restaurants and attractions for guests who want to visit its charming mountain downtown.

Guests can go to awmi.net/lodging for information on lodging. Destination VisitCOS.com provides visitors to the area information on activities in the Pikes Peak Region. Visit WomenAriseConference.org for more conference details.

ABOUT CHARIS BIBLE COLLEGE

Charis Bible College was started by Andrew Wommack to train disciples for the work of the ministry.
