

(Video) On the 20th Day of Iran's Nationwide Uprising, Students Led the Protests

Oct.5 Nurabad, south-central Iran Protesters torched a square as they continue the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

PARIS, FRANCE, October 6, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- The People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran \(PMOI / MEK\) reported that on October 5, the 20th day of the nationwide uprising of the Iranian people continued with protests and strikes. So far, nationwide uprisings have been recorded in more than 170 cities with 400 people killed and 20,000 arrests.

October 5, the 20th day of the nationwide uprising of the Iranian people continued with protests and strikes. So far, 400 people have been recorded to be killed, and 20,000 arrests. In Mashhad, schoolgirls protested and chanted "the mullahs must get lost."

Yesterday, the protests were held especially by the country's younger generation, mainly high school students. In several schools in Tehran, students protested and chanted: "Death to the dictator".

“

The regime's brutal response to the protests has drawn widespread international condemnation. In today's report, we will start with the latest news received today due to the internet shutdown in Iran."

MEK

Students in Karaj protested and chanted: "I will kill whoever killed my sister," "the imprisoned student must be freed," and "death to the Basij."

And students in Shiraz chanted: "This is the year of blood, and Khamenei will be overthrown," "shameless" referring to the regime's security forces and officials, and "Basiji must get lost", referring to the regime's infamous paramilitary Basij forces, who are responsible for the surveillance and spying on the people supporting the security forces to arrest the active people who are the engines of the protests.

In Saqqez schoolgirls chanted: "Don't fear we are united," and "Death to the dictator". They held their protest on the streets in front of the university, and some of them were arrested. In Marivan the students joined this movement and protested on the streets. People supported them by honking their car horns.

In Mashhad, schoolgirls protested and chanted "the mullahs must get lost."

So far, the regime's brutal response to the protests has drawn widespread international condemnation. In today's report, we will start with the latest videos from last night, which were received today due to the internet shutdown in Iran.

Maryam Rajavi the NCRI president-elect: "The special feature of this era is that regardless of the fact that the regime in Iran abandons or keeps its nuclear program, it will face an outbreak of uprisings where the PMOI/MEK and its Resistance Units will play their leading role."

Students in Karaj protested and chanted: "I will kill whoever killed my sister," "the imprisoned student must be freed," and "death to the Basij." And students in Shiraz chanted: "This is the year of blood, and Khamenei will be overthrown,"

October 5 In Shiraz, south-central Iran. referring to the regime's infamous Basij forces, who are responsible for the surveillance and spying on the people supporting the security forces to arrest the active people who are the engines of the protests.

October 5 – Tehran, Valiasr Street Protesters chanting: "Death to the dictator!"

October 5 – Shiraz, south-central Iran. Locals in Moali'Abad Blvd are continuing the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Isfahan, central Iran. Locals at Bozorgmehr Bridge are continuing the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Sanandaj, western Iran. Locals established roadblocks as they continue the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Nurabad, Fars Province, south-central Iran Protesters torched a square as they continue the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

Tehran, Iran Niavaran district. Locals tore down a pro-regime banner claiming the regime's state police are servants of the people and people support the state police.

October 5 – Kermanshah, western Iran Locals continue the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Tehran Locals in the capital's Sa'adat Abad district continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Tehran October 5 – Tehran Locals continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Qom, central #Iran Locals continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising.

October 5 – Hashtpar (Talesh), northern #Iran Locals continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th day of the uprising.

Iran's newest generation is seen tearing out images of the regime's first supreme leader Ruhollah Khomeini.

High school students protested and chanted: "Death to the Basij!" referring to the regime's IRGC paramilitary Basij Force.

Maryam Rajavi the NCRI president-elect: "The special feature of this era is that regardless of the fact that the mullahs abandons or keeps its nuclear program it will face an outbreak of uprisings where the Resistance Units will play their leading role."

October 5 - Qom, central Iran. Locals continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 20th night of the uprising. Protesters chanted from their rooftops during the night: "Don't fear we are united," and "Death to the dictator!" "Death to Khamenei"

October 5– Kerman, south-central Iran. Iran's regime security agents have been seen attacking high school students protesting the mullahs' dictatorship.

October 5 – Tehran, Valiasr district locals continued the nationwide protests against the regime on the 19th night of the uprising.

Kish Island, southern Iran. Protesters chanting: "So many years of crimes! Death to the mullahs' regime!"

October 5 – Tehran, 12:30 am local time protesters torched a vehicle of the regime's security forces. Protesters chanting: "Death to the dictator!"

October 5 – Tehran, Valiasr district – 1:00 am local time Protesters were still in the streets continuing their rallies against the mullahs' regime.

Shahin Gobadi

NCRI

+33 6 61 65 32 31

email us here

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/594537545>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2022 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.