

Barron & Newburger, P.C. Adds Experienced Business Litigator to Firm

Francesca Di Troia Joins Barron & Newburger

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Francesca Di Troia has joined Barron & Newburger's Austin headquarters as a senior counsel. She is a significant addition to the firm's Financial Services and Commercial Litigation Practice Groups.

Francesca is an accomplished litigator, author, and educator. Her litigation experience includes a wide range of business cases and also includes serving as an Assistant Attorney General in Texas litigating tort, employment, and constitutional cases.

Recently, she co-authored Texas Discovery: A Practitioner's Guide to Taking and Resisting Discovery Under the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. She also is an adjunct professor at the University of Texas School of Law teaching consumer law and trial advocacy.

"Francesca is an extraordinary hire for the firm" explained Manuel Newburger, a shareholder, and the co-founder of the firm. "Barron & Newburger is committed to helping clients find creative, economically sensible solutions to complex legal problems. Her versatile skills will provide significant talents to assist the firms' clients."

"Joining Barron & Newburger is an outstanding opportunity for me personally and professionally," according to Ms. Di Troia. "I am excited to join this firm and use my skills for the benefit of current and future clients."

Ms. Di Troia earned her Bachelor of Arts from Texas State University and her Juris Doctor from the University of Texas School of Law.
