Amazing vocal agility and lyrical prowess that transports everyone within earshot”

NPR

Jason Made is a singer songwriter from Fairhope, Alabama. He began his musical journey in the heart of the church where he learned to create music that first and foremost connects with and moves the listener. Jason's influences are as varied as the songs he writes.

His music has been described as a mix of r&b, soul, rock & roll, and country. He cites artists like Prince, Tina Turner, Ray Charles, Al Green, and James Brown as some of his biggest influences. Jason Made has been writing and playing music professionally since nine years old and has performed for audiences nationwide.

He is currently working on his debut solo album, which is set to be released in 2023.
