

The Survey is Open to Recognize the 2022 Best Minority Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year

The National Veteran-Owned Business Association opens its annual survey honoring the best U.S. minority veteran-owned businesses.

PITTSBURGH, PA, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Veteran-Owned Business Association (NaVOBA) is proud to launch the 2022 Minority Veteran's Business Enterprises® of the Year award survey. NaVOBA is releasing this survey in preparation for the NMSDC 2022 Conference in New Orleans, LA. We will be hosting an award ceremony during the conference for a minority veteran owned business that receives the 2022 VBEYOY award.

Participating in this survey pays tribute to America's veteran business owners and drives awareness of the quality work they do everyday in our communities. Now in its 15th year, this prestigious honor is bestowed annually to an elite selection of America's veteran business owners working as supplier partners to NaVOBA's Corporate Allies. Your participation in the survey is greatly appreciated!

The military teaches leadership, teamwork, integrity, resolve and ingenuity. These intangibles are also the most important ingredients for success in running a business.”

Matthew Pavelek

The companies that earn 2022 Veteran's Business Enterprises® of the Year distinction will be featured in the Fall issue of Veteran's Enterprise, NaVOBA's official national quarterly report.

The Veteran's Business Enterprises® of the Year demonstrate the finest attributes crucial in leading a flourishing business; sustained business growth and success; and an extensive aspiration to cultivate veteran entrepreneurship.

To be eligible to receive the award, the nominee firm must be a NaVOBA-Certified Veterans or Service-Disabled Veteran's Business Enterprise® (VBE/SDVBE). Veteran's Business Enterprises® of the Year candidates are strongly encouraged to nominate themselves or another veteran-owned business for the award.
