Bradley Wampler, Founder, and CEO of Bradley Interiors, firmly believes that a kitchen must function well to fit the homeowner chef's personal cooking style. The award-winning designer has recently launched his secret recipe for creating style-setting kitchens that go beyond function. His careful selection of materials and finishes makes these kitchens more meaningful than ever.

"Perhaps more than in any other place in a home, love, and function are tightly intertwined in the kitchen. Kitchens are the heart of any home. It is a place that should be welcoming for everyone since it is a gathering place where the family's heritage unfolds not through just fine recipes that are presented and passed down generations but also a place where the creativity mixed with a love of the chef of the family is revealed and also embraced." ~ Bradley Wampler, CEO of Bradley Interiors

The kitchen is highly complex. To get to the details that properly personalize a space, Bradley

Interiors starts with a questionnaire they have curated to understand the broad and varied uses and needs of the space the client will have. The design process is deeply rooted in the preferences of every unique client. Bradley Wampler discusses the personal cooking routines and the homeowners' entertaining style to create a dream kitchen that is stylish yet highly functional. Bradley Interiors' questionnaire asks the client to identify pieces that are particularly meaningful for them to help tell their individual story.

Lighting also plays a key role in a successful kitchen design. Bradley Wampler uses natural and task-oriented lights to design light-filled kitchen spaces.

"We prefer incorporating big picture windows that go behind the sink and down to the counter for incredible natural light. We also use gorgeous accent lighting and elegant pendants because using a variety of lighting sources enhances a kitchen both aesthetically and functionally." ~ Bradley Wampler

Bradley Wampler is known to create functional kitchens when in use and beautiful when not in use. He focuses on every single element, ensuring everything works in harmony with the other elements in the space, and draws everyone's attention towards it by creating joyous energy.
