Several vintage vanity cases are up for bid this October. These compact cases grew in popularity during the 1920s. At that time, women's fashion abandoned heavy layers and pockets, so these petite containers discreetly held a lady's cosmetics, cigarette lighter, and other daily necessities. Available in this sale is an 18-karat gold and enamel vanity case from Cartier Paris (lot #251; estimate: $12,000 – $17,000). It dates back to the Art Deco period and features a lipstick attached by a delicate gold chain.
