Assistance Professionals Association (EAPA), the global leader in the certification, support, development and networking of Employee Assistance professionals, today announces that Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, MSW, LCSW, EAP at Children's Hospital Los Angeles, has been selected as the 2022 EAPA Member of the Year. EAPA honors a current EAPA member for outstanding contribution to EAPA or delivery of services in the EA field within the last 24 months.

I am humbled and honored to be recognized by EAPA among such a distinguished group of colleagues who have been providing such compassionate care to the workforce, especially throughout the pandemic.”

“Elizabeth has been a dedicated employee assistance professional (EAP) for years and provides Children's Hospital Los Angeles with some of the most creative EAP programs in support of their medical staff and employees,” said Julie Fabsik-Swartz, EAPA CEO. “Recently, she was awarded a $2.1 million grant to help healthcare providers manage their stress and build resiliency. This is a stunning accomplishment and a credit to the reputation and value of the EAP at Children's as well as to the profession and the wonderful contribution Beth has made to the profession.”

This award is supported by Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation and was presented during the 2022 EAPA Institute and EXPO, that took place October 7-9 in Norfolk, VA.

“It truly has been a privilege to support the amazing staff and faculty at Children's Hospital Los Angeles,” Fitzpatrick says. “I am humbled and honored to be recognized by EAPA among such a distinguished group of colleagues who have been providing such compassionate care to the workforce, especially throughout the pandemic.”
