Round-the-clock Help Inside 6 Minutes for UAE's Corporate World Thanks to OneScreen's New Smart Technology

San Diego-based tech company unveils innovative Guru System that offers free live demo and live help through audio/video calls at any time.

Dubai, Oct 10: Call it the new six-degrees of separation or what you will but a San Diego-based smart tech provider is making waves at this GITEX Global with an innovative system that promises to transform the way teams collaborate and communicate through its round-the-clock support inside a matter of six minutes.

OneScreen is participating at this year's biggest tech gathering for the first time. At the top of their lineup of exhibits is their unique Guru Support that provides the corporate community with free live demonstrations of their products and free live help through audio/video calls at any time.

"We are absolutely thrilled to be attending GITEX to showcase the brilliant technologies that OneScreen has developed to change the scope of collaboration in the corporate sector for good. Our Guru Support is one of them," said Sufian Munir, CEO of OneScreen.
