The Cancer Hope Network community is full of helpers – volunteers, partners and champions who share their time, their stories and their resources. Each fall, as October brings cancer top-of-mind to the wider world and holiday preparations start lengthening to-do lists, people ask for

MORE ways they can help and support CHN.

Below, a few practical ways to help the (Cancer Hope) helpers.

Honor a loved one – A gift to our Garden of Hope is a meaningful way to celebrate a friend currently fighting cancer or a loved one taken too soon. It’s also a meaningful holiday gift for the “person who has everything.” Each honoree will be mailed a Legacy of Hope tribute card and your digital message added to our online garden.

Shop Amazon Smile – Designate CHN as your charity to support on Amazon Smile and a portion of each purchase will come to CHN.

Host a fundraising event – Gather friends for a paint or pottery class, a virtual game night or set a fitness goal and keep track of your progress through Just Giving or help by creating a Facebook fundraiser (CHN pays no processing fees for gifts made through FB.)

Visit our store – What better way to help spread the word about CHN and support us than rocking a CHN t-shirt, delivering Halloween treats in a CHN tote or sipping a cozy drink from one of our mugs? Each purchase helps fund our hope-creating work.

Tell a friend or introduce us to your healthcare team – Encourage a friend to become a volunteer (cancerhopenetwork.org/volunteer) or share our free materials with your oncologist or social worker.

Share hope on Social Media – Like, comment, share, and follow! You can find us on Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, & Instagram.
