Mental health issues are at epidemic levels in our culture today with so many people losing hope for a happy future. Sadly, there is a stigma and feeling of shame many young people experience when talking about this difficult subject that keeps them from opening up about their own challenges. Destiny Malibu understands these struggles deeply because they are her struggles too. When she talks about mental health issues in her new podcast, she speaks from personal experience. She also offers hope for the future and helps her listeners find joy in the little things in life from petting a dog or a smile from a stranger. Every week Destiny along with her cohost, DJ Dezzee, and their inspiring guests share practical tools and tips and touching stories that will help her listeners on their own unique journey.
