

Crowe & Dunlevy Attorneys Speak at the Environmental Federation of Oklahoma's Annual Meeting

Don Shandy and Tim Sowecke discuss the WVA v. EPA SCOTUS decision, mitigating environmental risk, and employee safety

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Crowe & Dunlevy attorneys are speaking at the Environmental Federation of Oklahoma's (EFO) 31st Annual Meeting & Trade Show on October 11-12, 2022, at the Reed Conference Center in Midwest City, Oklahoma.

Donald Shandy and Tim Sowecke, both members of the firm's Energy, Environment & Natural Resources Practice Group, will discuss health, safety, and environmental regulations that impact Oklahoma businesses.

Shandy's panel will review the WVA v.

EPA SCOTUS decision while Sowecke will be speaking on a health and safety panel focused on mitigating environmental risks and protecting employees.

More than 250 environmental managers, regulators, and consultants are scheduled to attend the event, which is focused on providing up-to-date technologies and information to environmental, safety, and compliance professionals.

Speakers include safety and environmental personnel from the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality, Oklahoma Secretary of Energy & Environment, Oklahoma State University, and private sector.

Crowe & Dunlevy's environment practice includes experienced attorneys in all aspects of
