Ever-Branching Tree), an exquisitely penned thriller fiction by David Scidmore, a huge fan of almost every mystical or fantasy work, will shed delight at the 2022 Frankfurt Book Fair this coming October 19-23, 2022. Scidmore remarkably added his touch of the ever-so-cliche fantasy and romance fiction and is expected to attract new readers and further engage the current ones.

A strange phenomenon bound together a young man and woman of two separate worlds together as along with living in a world they have not been in before, they are also roped further together by a silly twist of fate, mystifying prophecies, terrifying creatures, and a “wrong place at a wrong time” swirl of romance. This epic high-fantasy cinematic work about two ordinary people’s romance leaves no room for parity with other works of the same genre.

“ It was all part of a plan: an uncomplicated life with few responsibilities. It was almost perfect, too, except for someone to share it with— and who knew, maybe today that would change. Then again, he told himself that every day.”— excerpt from Dellia by David Scidmore

Join the thrilling journey of a young physicist and his friend after being thrown into the world of Meerdon as Scidmore showcases in this debut novel all the things his readers are to watch out for. Copies of the book are up for grabs on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other online book retailers.
