The funds were granted to the Foundation's more than 30 charity partners. In addition to the funds raised, the Foundation donated 45,000 volunteer hours as well as 180,000 diapers, along with cribs and beds for babies and other essential items for families in need.

"This is truly historic and remarkable," said Pamela Weinroth, Executive Director of the Foundation. "This is a reflection of the hard work and dedication of our board, Boca West members and supporters in the community that we were able to raise record dollars in a year with an array of obstacles."

Richard Zenker, Chairman of Boca West Children's Foundation Board, said "The funds we grant to our charity partners directly help children and families in need, from providing backpacks with food, to diapers, beds, aftercare, tutoring, summer and sports camps, counseling, college scholarships, and so much more. Despite some challenges over the last couple of years, so many good and caring people came together and kept our focus on helping the children."

Boca West Children's Foundation grants exceed $16 million over its twelve years of operation.

These grants benefit more than 30 organizations that assist at-risk children and their families in Palm Beach County. Visit Bocawestfoundation.org for more information.
