Camacho's book will be one of Authors Press' featured displays that are expected to captivate fair-goers.

"Third grade started, and everything changed. Cecilia would get really quiet. She seemed to be waiting for something to happen." — excerpt from Cecilia and Bay by Noemi Camacho

Third grade started, and everything changed. Cecilia would get really quiet. She seemed to be waiting for something to happen.”

Noemi Camacho

The book offers a reflective and staid approach to how everyone goes through life with the thought of going through it together with someone not considered “normal” by society. The concept of guardian angels has existed long before this book was penned, however, Camacho was able to magnificently emulate a perfect read that will not be perceived as common and blanch.

Translucent in her words is Camacho's matriarchy, she is a proud Texas native. Readers can grab a copy of the book on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other selected bookstores.
