FRANKFURT, GERMANY, October 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Frankfurt, DE— Rachel R. Fillmore, author of the engaging work, The Hidden Mysteries of the Town of Padere, has finally written her first book and wants to share this edge-of-your-seat story with the world. Accomplishing her first childhood dream of writing an intriguing story, she lives as a mother of two autistic boys and married to a hard-working man for over 17 years. Fillmore uses the inspiration of her family into completing this book that will be displayed at the 2022 Frankfurt

Book Fair this coming October 19th-23rd. This work of a thriller- mystery tells the story of a “seemingly” normal 18-year-old girl living in a small town on the coast of Washington State.

Unbeknownst to her, Taylor will be thrown into a whirlwind of events and mind- boggling discoveries that will leave readers on the edge of their seats. Left with only this irritating craving for curiosity, she lives through a cult suicide gone wrong, kidnappings, housefire, and several ghost encounters thrown into the midst of the chaos. All of these events and constant warning signs alerts Taylor that something is very wrong. Something is stirring in the wind. Something is about to happen that could change her life forever. This lurking fear that sneaks its way around every corner takes Taylor on a ride of her life while the search for truth gets farther and farther from her grasp.
