painting career, Rockwood explored different mediums or genres – she tried different things such as sketches and three-dimensional. Around 2017, she began seeing color codes and vision of three-dimensional works – before she would start painting, she could “see” her works that she hadn't painted yet. She depended on God to show her new images, then she would instinctively move her brush around and start painting the images that she can see. Rockwood lives by the biblical verse “11 For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. 12 Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13 You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.”

Cindy L. Rockwood holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in graphic design. She has been using abstract realism as her art style since 1991. Rockwood incorporates figures, patterns, lines, and textures to give a surreal impression to artwork.
