Guardian Jet, the 20-year-old business aviation brokerage, consulting and analytics firm, launches Vault 4.0, its most robust client portal upgrade, at NBAA2022

GUILFORD, CT, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Now in its 20th year of business, Guardian Jet LLC, the world's largest business aviation brokerage, consulting and analytics firm, is launching its most robust software upgrade yet. "Vault 4.0", their online aviation asset management portal, will be released in Orlando, Florida, on October 18-20, during the NBAA Business Aviation Convention & Exhibition (NBAA-BACE).

“At Guardian Jet, we built the most extensive library of technical and operational content in the private aviation industry. The depth of the information is unprecedented, and we’re making it available exclusively to our clients,” said Mike Dwyer, Co-Founder and Co-Managing Partner, Guardian Jet. “Vault 4.0 provides data and transparency to help our clients feel prepared and protected for every aspect of buying, operating, and selling jets.”

The new Vault 4.0 upgrades include easy online access to vast amounts of data and analytics intelligence on the technical, legal and operational aspects of aircraft ownership. Additionally, the redesigned software navigation offers users one-click access to each client’s fleet, transactions, favorite tools, and features.

Newly added Vault 4.0 features:

-- Technical Library – Access current estimated costs for inspection schedules, maintenance programs, avionics upgrades, connectivity, cabin management systems, refurbishments, service bulletins and much more, indexed for each model.

-- Knowledge Center – Research every topic that affects the evaluation, acquisition, operation, and disposal of aircraft.

-- Performance Center – Evaluate the capabilities for an aircraft to meet a mission based on what the client wants to fly, to where, with how many passengers, and when.

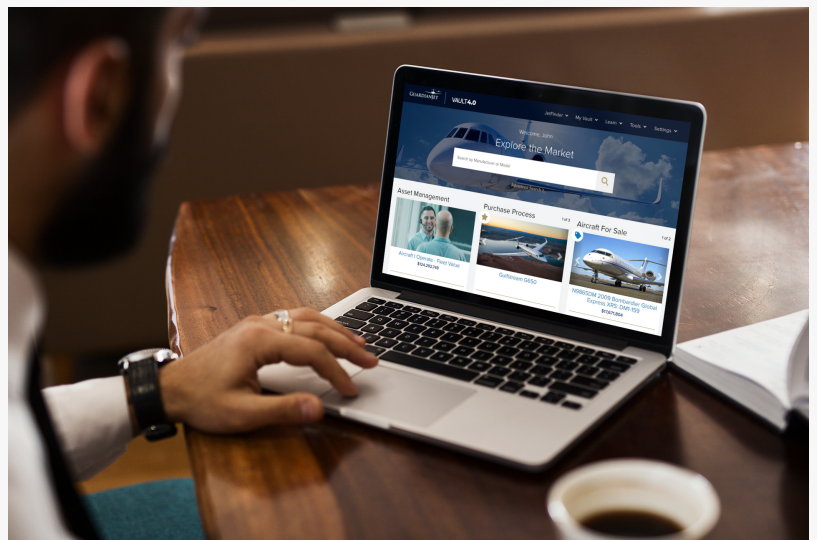

-- Legal Library – Get an insider view into legal procedures, regulations, documents, and terms that apply to ownership and trades, complimenting support of aviation attorneys.

The Vault also offers these tools:

-- JetFinder™ - Use detailed search criteria to find the perfect jet and see listings of every model for sale; compare range and cabin sizes for passenger and luggage capabilities; view automated financial projections based on travel usage, and more.

-- Guardian Estimate™ - Understand an aircraft's value based on the condition of the market as well as track potential aircraft replacement options.

-- Asset Management - Actively manage aircraft just as you would an asset in a portfolio over the Explore the aircraft market with Guardian Jet's online client portal. The Vault 4.0 offers extensive information updates to help aircraft owners and operators become experts on the aircraft make and model they're most interested in buying or selling.
