

Aren & Élise Book Launching

Know more about this compelling contemporary realistic novel "Aren & Élise" to be released in October.

FRAMINGHAM, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES , October 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aren & Élise is a modern retelling of the biblical story of Abraham and Sarah. The year is 2011. The main characters are Aren Karajian, a retired solar technology engineer, and Élise Douchet, a private school French teacher in Boston. A fall and subsequent rescue during a morning hike in Vermont precipitate their encounter. A dogged pursuit ensues.

"It is not a date. It's tea and conversation."

It's a date," she said

"And so it is. I'll see you at three..."

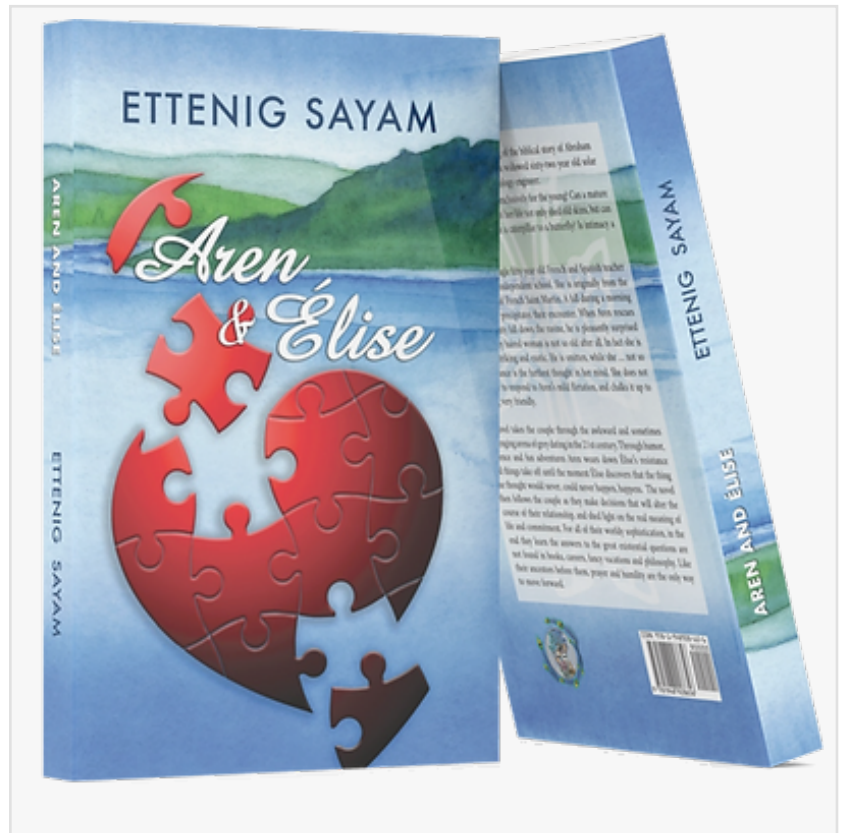

She laughed this time flashing the whitest smile.

A sultry romance flourishes. A miracle happens.

Can a miracle upend your life and shatter your relationship? Boston has a centuries-old tradition of marathons. In the Boston Marathon, you must go through Heartbreak Hill to finish the race. So it is for Aren and Élise in the Marathon of their life.

For all of their worldly sophistication, in the end, Aren and Élise learn the answers to the great existential questions that are not found in books, careers, fancy vacations, and philosophy. Like their ancestors before them, prayer and humility are the only way to move forward.

Aren & Élise will be available in the middle of October. You can purchase this book through the publisher's website <https://www.theewingspublishing.com/bookstore/> once it is available.
