

James Kahn's 'By the Risin' of the Sea' - Shanty Album Seeks Consideration on Upcoming First Round Voting Grammy Awards®

James Kahn's 'By the Risin' of the Sea', will be on the Recording Academy™ 1st ballot for consideration for Best Folk Album on the upcoming Grammy Awards®

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, US, October 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- James Kahn is thrilled to announce his contemporary sea shanty album, 'By the Risin' of the Sea,' has been included by the Recording Academy™ on their first-round ballot for consideration for the upcoming Grammy Awards®, offered in the category of BEST FOLK ALBUM.

This album is unique - using the traditional sea shanty form to address climate change, refugee issues, and other environmental and social crises.

You can listen on Soundcloud, watch the award-winning video, and read the reviews at <https://conta.cc/3czSR9a>.

Please take 10 minutes to listen to just the first 3 songs. Get absorbed in the music. Listen to the words.

For a deeper dive, read the LINER NOTES.

The title song, 'The Risin' of the Sea,' has also been included on the album 'HOPE RISES II,' a collection of songs for social change, sponsored by Paul Stookey and the MUSIC TO LIFE foundation, to be released November, 2022.

“

The existential threat of climate change can no longer be bogged down in debate. My hope is the emotional power of this traditional music can reach people's hearts where news headlines fall short.”
