

Morton Industries Acquires Benton Steel Fabrication, Expands Reach/Product Portfolio

New Investment Lays Foundation for Growth

MORTON, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, October 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Morton Industries, LLC. today announced its acquisition of Benton Steel Fabrication, Inc., a long-standing fabricator of specialized steel products. The investment expands the Morton Industries footprint into Dunlap, Tennessee while providing the company with its 4th manufacturing location. Morton Industries other locations include Fort Worth, Texas and two in Morton, Illinois.

“Morton Industries has been a trusted partner to top tier OEMs for decades,” says Chris Ober, CEO at Morton Industries. “This acquisition will help us strengthen those relationships and provide additional high-quality solutions in strategic locations that support their needs.”

I found the right company to pass on our fabrication excellence and customer insights to.”

Mitchell Carr

Benton Steel Fabrication’s product line includes reliable, specialized sheet metal components for construction and mining machines. These components compliment Morton

Industries other off-highway solutions, which are composed largely of fabricated steel tubular products.

“We’re setting up the future” adds Mitchell Carr, Benton Steel Fabrication’s founder. “I found the right company to pass on our fabrication excellence and customer insights to. I really appreciate the people who worked so hard to get Benton where it is, and I see a bright future for everybody there!”

As part of the acquisition, Benton Steel is rebranding to the Morton Industries name.

The company is hiring, so please stop by the Dunlap facility or visit www.Mortonind.com for more information.
