

SHAPLEI, launches New NFT Utility Platform To grow a business platform in the Metaverse

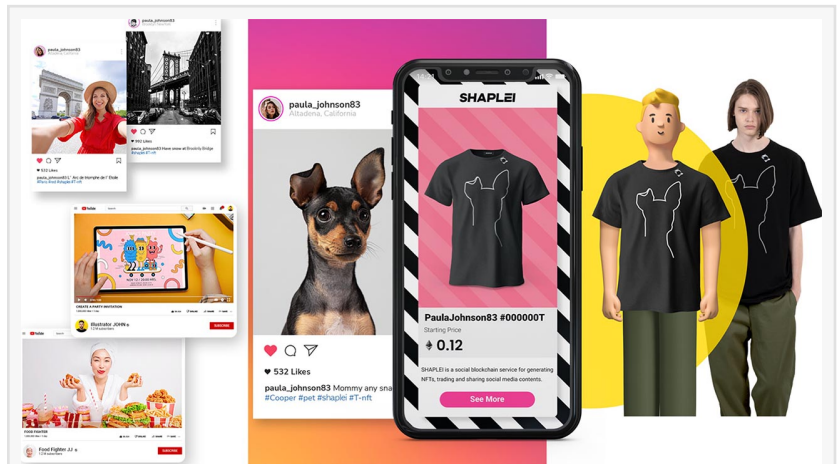

SAN-FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATE, October 18, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Shapl with over 4000 designers from 49 countries, have built a trusted design & manufacturing platform for a fast growing consuming market. With launching a new NFT Utility Platform as SHAPLEI, our mission is giving content creators the technology and infrastructure to succeed, not just with creating content, but with also building out their business in the Metaverse.

“Creators can create new avenues of traffic that lead people to their products to the consumer.” said JinChang Soo, CEO of SHAPL,” and he added “SHAPLEI is a platform that is built to increase the value of Utility NFTs by buying and selling in both metaverse and real life.”

The platform provides a technology that allow a social media content as Utility NFT in transforming values and objects to wearable 3.0.

Customers then can collect these NFTs to dress up the digital avatars in the Metaverse efficiently and trade them. Content creators, on the other hand, can integrate SHAPLEI technology within their projects to expand and own Utility NFT collections in the Metaverse.
