About Josh Remi

Josh Remi is a Filipino-American, multi-genre recording artist & songwriter based out of Jacksonville, Florida. He is endlessly perfecting his signature and creative sound by writing music such as his upcoming single "C8" from his debut studio album "The Interval."

Poised to become the next big star in the music industry, Josh captures the eardrums of his fans with his catchy hooks and smooth sounds. He developed a strong sense of self through tragedy caused by the loss of love and a prolonged feeling of losing himself.

Josh loves connecting with his fans in concert and is known for delivering high-energy vocal performances leaving concertgoers craving an encore. His real-life experiences are the catalyst and vessel that inspires the music he creates. His strong sense of self is reflected in his music which shares stories of love lost and feelings of losing himself. Destined to become a household name, his upcoming projects blend R&B, pop, rock, and country rhythms and an unexpected nod to his passion and love for Corvettes with his forthcoming single "C8," set to drop in late fall.
