Technology Partners, a leading technology solutions and services company specializing in the delivery of digital infrastructure solutions and managed services, announced the appointment of Dave Brill as the new Data Center and Cloud Practice Director.

In his role as Data Center and Cloud Practice Director, Dave is responsible for the Practice strategy, strengthening relationships with OEM partners, brokering new relationships and supporting Aspire's customer base.

Dave honed his design and management skills over the past few years, enhancing his already deep interest and knowledge in Data Center and Cloud solutions.”

John C. Harris, President and CEO of Aspire Technology Partners

Dave rejoins Aspire after a five-year break and was instrumental in building practice teams at regional and national partners working with Data Center, Cloud and Managed Services. Most recently, he was a Principal Architect leading a Data Center practice in the Northeast. His experience spans support of large enterprises, state and local government, education, healthcare and other verticals. In this role, he designed global data centers for Fortune 100 and 500 organizations.

“We're extremely happy to have Dave return to Aspire. He honed his design and management skills over the past few years, enhancing his already deep interest and knowledge in Data Center and Cloud solutions,” said John C. Harris, President and CEO of Aspire Technology Partners.
