

Keep America Beautiful Announces Speaker Lineup for Vision for America 2022

The two-day working and learning event, themed "Vision for a Litter-Free America," takes place October 26 & 27 in NYC.

STAMFORD, CT, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Keep America Beautiful®, the nation's leading community improvement nonprofit organization, announces the speakers for Vision for America 2022, a two-day working and learning event that will highlight the power of tri-sector leadership to urgently address litter eradication to create healthy civic infrastructure, environmental integrity, and community equity.

With the theme "Vision for a Litter-Free America," Vision 2022 will begin on the afternoon of October 26 in NYC with an impact-focused service project with the New York Sanitation Foundation. The day will conclude with a networking and recognition reception.

On October 27, a half-day roundtable event for business, government, and nonprofit leaders to address litter abatement from multiple perspectives will be held at Studio Gather by Tishman Speyer at Rockefeller Plaza.

Panels will be focused on pathways, partnerships, and business strategies that engage communities to inspire action and find solutions.
