

NYC Music Publishing & Distribution Company Too Lost Launches Blocklist in Continued Effort to Protect Artists' Rights

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Music publishing and distribution company Too Lost launched the highly anticipated Blocklist, offering a more proactive option to artists to protect their original music and copyrights. The just-announced technology prevents unauthorized usage of specified tracks on certain sites and services.

When artists add tracks to the Blocklist, third-party uploads on the specified services will be blocked, and the content will be made unavailable. This tool empowers artists to specify where they want their music made available, mitigating leaks and preventing unlicensed usage of their content. Too Lost's Blocklist is now connected with multiple sites and services including Dailymotion, Soundcloud, and Twitch.
