nature in its purest form, while also enjoying the latest sustainable amenities and technology. With its walking trails, fishing pond, revitalized activity barn, waterfalls, sandy mountain beaches, and over a hundred acres of rolling woodlands, it is the perfect place for those seeking their wooded mountaintop dream home. It is also within walking distance of a world-class state park Foster Falls.

The nationally recognized team, A. Perry Homes who has created this community, is known for their light touch and talented eye for every detail, ensuring that Woodland Preserve at Foster Falls is a truly one-of-a-kind development.

Anthony states, "Rarely in one's career do you get an opportunity to work in such a stunning environment. Our team has approached this project as a legacy project, one that will be appreciated for generations to come. We consider ourselves the steward for this pristine land filled with mature woods, rolling hills, waterfalls, and a beautiful river."

Woodland Preserves at Foster Falls will be taking reservations on lots. Final details and lot configurations will be available after final subdivision approval.
