The 11th annual EXPO MICHIGAN Marketplace, hosted by The Oakland County Business Association Inc of Michigan, is back for 2022 with more artists, crafters, entrepreneurs, vendors and more fun things for people to see and do, including Michigan Superstar Talent Show. The event, will be held inside a 30,000 square foot store at Lakeside Shopping Center in Sterling Heights, MI.

As in previous years, this EXPO will feature handcrafted items by Michigan artisans from across the state – many with disabilities, local businesses, and more, including artists, authors, crafters, designers, direct sales, home based businesses, small businesses and services. Disability agencies exhibit free for their clients that make hand crafted items. Admission is $1 cash for Autism Speaks.

100 exhibitors spaces every weekend, Exhibit your business products or services here. Reserve online www.EXPOMICHIGAN.com

“The two main goals of this annual event is to help all artisans and crafters sell their items and get exposure to the public and to offer people starting a new business or making products an opportunity to exhibit in a community setting,” says Shirley Mall, Event Manager for EXPO Michigan. “These events provide a regular opportunity for everyone to exhibit or present a micro-enterprise business opportunity and it’s a great opportunity for new businesses to get exposure”
