Ettinger Law Firm recognized that it wasn't enough to just design estate plans utilizing trusts. One of the most rewarding aspects of estate law is getting to know families. They will work with you to develop a comprehensive plan to address your legal needs, integrating your values and vision to help you achieve your goals.

Michael Ettinger, President at the Ettinger Law Firm has been practicing for forty-two years in the areas of elder law and estate planning. By emphasizing trusts, rather than wills, he helps clients preserve and protect their assets from the expense and delay of probate while at the same time making sure that everything is not lost to nursing home expenses and taxes.

Michael Ettinger is an author in respected legal publications such as the New York State Bar Journal, and has published over one hundred articles on estate planning and elder law subjects.

Mr. Ettinger currently serves as a contributor to the bestselling book, "Understanding Living Trusts," published by Schumacher, and authored "Elder Law Estate Planning," available on Amazon.com.

Michael Ettinger received his B.C.L. and LL.B. from McGill University, with honors, and his LL.M. from the London School of Economics. He is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, New York State Bar Association, American Association of Trust, Estate and Elder Law Attorneys, and founding member of the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys and The American Academy of Special Needs Planning.

Michael resides with his wife and law partner, Suzanne Ettinger, in Centerport, NY.

The Top Attorneys of North America, a New York based publication, distinguishes and profiles leading attorneys who have reached a recognizable degree of success and leadership in their field. The directory is valued for promoting awareness of the accomplishments within the North American legal community.
