

Richard A. Delgado wins an Award at the Vegas Movie Awards™

The Galacticals: Let the Games Begin, a winner of the prestigious Las Vegas-based Film Festival Vegas Movie Awards™ for Best Original Story Award of Excellence.

LOS ANGELES , CALIFORNIA , UNITED STATES , October 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Galacticals: Let the Games Begin tells the story of The Galactic Games. The Galactic Games is a life-or-death competition within the solar system that takes place every one hundred years. Unfortunately, planet Earth has never been able to win, nor be in the top four for the past millennia. This year their luck may change. After years of training and dedication, five of the most prestigious athletes come together to prove to the galaxy that they are the best. Though, in spite of Earth's gifted team, they would not only have to compete against their greatest adversaries, but also battle against space bandits and corrupt leaders to earn their spot. Consumed by pride and commitment, will planet Earth win the Galactical Games? Or would history repeat itself and face the possible destruction of humans?
