“Blood and Bone” kicks off the “Watershed” album, and has been well received among fans and critics, alike. The video production comes straight from the war-torn Russia/Ukraine region. Arn explains, “It has an interesting backstory in that the dancer, Anastasia, created this interpretation before things went south in Russia and the Ukraine. She left behind her contacts, her performance partners, and uprooted to Bulgaria. I always refer to her as a dancer with ‘the soul of a poet.’”
