

Hollywood Burlesque Festival Returns as Burlesque Legends Welcome a New Generation of Performers

The godmother of L.A. burlesque, Lili VonSchtupp, passes the torch to Miss Spent Youth to revamp and relaunch the Festival for a new era of burlesque.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, October 26, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Hollywood

There's a new generation of burlesque blossoming in Los Angeles with a new surge of performers rising up to the occasion and we want to highlight these new voices as the older legends pass the torch."

Miss Spent Youth

Burlesque Festival returns in 2023 for the first time in four years with a historic venue and new producer, Miss Spent Youth, at the helm. Tickets will be available September 1st, 2022.

This three-day event will bring together the local burlesque community and performers from across the nation to. Lili VonSchtupp is retiring after starting and running the festival for nine years and her mentee, Miss Spent Youth, is bringing forth a new vision for the only burlesque festival in Southern California.

"There's a new generation of burlesque blossoming in Los Angeles with a new surge of performers rising up to the occasion and we want to highlight these new voices as the older legends pass the torch."

– Miss Spent Youth, Hollywood Burlesque Festival Producer

The festival will include:

- Three, themed showcases
- Small business vendors
- Classes for Performers and the General Public
- Networking Events
- After Parties
- Competition judged by burlesque legends and established performers

Featured performers include:

Miss Spent Youth is focusing the festival on three distinct goals.

Build Community: Bring performers from all different backgrounds together to distinguish themselves in the community and showcase the best they have to offer.

Educate: Classes will offer performers the chance to learn from performers they don't have access to locally as well as offer their own knowledge to the general public and next generation of burlesque lovers and performers.

Bolster Local Businesses: Vendors will be comprised of performers, "many of whom are small business owners themselves," says Miss Spent Youth, as well as other small businesses who contribute to the burlesque community.

"I can't imagine a more qualified and talented individual to take this festival to its next level. I am excited to see what she does and I'll be in the audience cheering." –Lili VonSchtupp, Hollywood Burlesque Festival Founding Producer
